

Birds Of Paradise Songtext

Who are you? Who am I?
Is it real? Do we touch the sky?
Nothing's real, all disguise
Said the birds of paradise.

I'm affraid, can't you see?
Tell me where do you carry me?
You will soon realise
Said the birds of paradise.

Refrain:

Flying home, flying home
To the land that you once have known
To the peace that once was true
For a little girl like you
Flying home, flying home
From a world that is made of stone
'till your heart is light and free
Like it once was meant to be

How can I go ahead
When my eyes are becoming wed?
Save your tears, dry your eyes
Said the birds of paradise.

Like the time's passing by
Say hello, do we have to fly
No more sad summer eyes
Said the birds of paradise

Refrain (2x)

Hear the song, see the light
Now I know that our way was right
Morning sun can make you wise
Said the birds of paradise

Birds of paradise
